

MICHAEL A. BORTH, CPA (inactive)

Doctoral Student, Department of Accounting and Information Management
The University of Tennessee in Knoxville
637 Stokely Management Center, Knoxville, TN 37996-0560
Phone: 974-6103, Email: mborth@utk.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D. – Accounting, The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN (Expected 2010)
M.Acc. – Accounting, The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN (August 2002)
B.S.B.A. – Accounting, Auburn University (December 1999)

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Auditing
Corporate governance

TEACHING INTERESTS

Auditing
Financial accounting

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant – University of Tennessee (2007)
Research Assistant – University of Tennessee (2006-2007)
Auditor – PricewaterhouseCoopers (2004-2006)
Auditor – U.S. Department of Energy Office of Inspector General (2002-2004)
Research Assistant – University of Tennessee (2001-2002)
Accountant – National Aeronautics and Space Administration (2000-2001)

RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

“Unexplored Linkages Between Corporate Governance and IT Governance: An Evaluation and Call to Research” working paper with Randy V. Bradley (forthcoming in reviewed textbook Information Technology Governance and Service Management: Frameworks and Adaptations)

COURSES TAUGHT

Survey of Accounting, University of Tennessee (Fall 2007)

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

American Accounting Association (since 2006)

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (since 2006)

Tennessee Society of Certified Public Accountants (since 2004)