

John Anderson

SMC418 865-977-1777 jander31@utk.edu

- University of Tennessee, May 2000-present.
- Lecturer in international business beginning summer 2000
- Interim Director full time MBA program May 2004-June 2005
- Director of the College's Global Business Institute, 2000-2003
- Courses: BA361 Global Context, MGT401 Business Strategy, BA311 and IB409 advanced international business, MGT 495 international business for language and world business students, MBA global module, one time set of classes for EMBA, three times a set of classes for the ProMBA, leadership development coach of the Physicians MBA.
- Presently I teach 410 BA 361 students, 150 IB409 students, 91 MBAs and both BA 361 and IB409 during summer school. A total of nearly 1300 students per year.

- Nominated three times for the COB Keally award as outstanding teacher in the College of Business. Winner in 2002 and 2006.
- Nominated for Outstanding Service to Students 2008.
- Repeated "Exceeds Expectations" faculty evaluation reports
- Consistent 4.7-4.8 out of 5.0 student evaluations in MBA program and advanced undergraduate international classes. Low 4s in large BA 361 lecture classes.
- Received high evaluations for the short set of classes done for EMBA and PROMBA
- PEMBA coach 2009
- Consistent mentor for University and College honors students
- Case writer and leader of final capstone MBA case competition 2008 and 2009.
- Outside business consulting. A few current or prior clients include GerdauAmeristeel, Inc., Corporate Express, Inc, Ecolabs Inc., Pelikan GMBH, Sterling Commerce Inc, Eldorado Brazil S.A.,

- Business experience, The Gillette Company, Rubbermaid Inc., Textron, Crayola and Sterling Drug Inc.
- Fourteen years expatriate experience in Germany, the United Kingdom, Brazil and the Dominican Republic. Over 2 million air miles working in many countries of the world with extensive travel in Europe, Latin America, Asia and North America.
- German, Spanish, Portuguese

- MBA, Thunderbird Graduate School of International Business, B.S., Indiana University, Harvard Management Development Program.